

Lethabo Sekele Profile

Lethabo Sekele is the founder and Chief Executive Officer of WorkWell Workplace Mental Health. She holds a BA (Honours) from Rhodes University, a certificate in Global Health Delivery and Governance from Harvard University and also completed her Certified Director training with the Institute of Directors in South Africa (IodSA).

Lethabo was recently honoured by the Mail & Guardian on their list of Top 200 Young South Africans for 2021 in the Healthcare Category

She previously served on the Board of Trustees of Medshield Medical Scheme and also as the scheme's Chairperson of Marketing, Pricing and Product Review as well a member of the Remuneration and Human Capital Subcommittee. She also served as a Non-Executive Director for Johns Hopkins University's JHPIEGO South Africa (now JPS Africa) which offers reproductive health services in underserved communities around South Africa.

Lethabo also served as the Strategic Support to the General Secretary of the National Union of Metal Workers of South Africa (NUMSA) and was a member of the Local Market Optimisation Committee of the South African Automotive Industry's Executive Oversight Committee (EOC) which is Chaired by the Minister of Trade, Industry and Competition, Minister Ebrahim Patel.